ABFM Family Medicine Certification:
Major Changes in 2016-2017, (Including the Exam)

Joseph W. Tollison, M.D.

The major changes that are being implemented this year by the American Board of Family Medicine will be clearly outlined. Dr. Tollison, the Senior Advisor to the President of ABFM, is here to help, and all questions will be addressed. The goal of this session is to help you choose the best pathway to certification - saving time, while getting more!
